

Work Package 9 – Transmission Solution Integration

Work Package Leader	Russell Stewart/Tom Walmsley
Inputs	Transmission options provided as an output from the Grid Planning Studies work package
Outputs	Transmission solutions, that have been tested by both internal and external stakeholders and experts, for inclusion in the Transmission 2040 – Grid Development Strategy document
Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Set high level business and policy assumptions • Complete review of the identified transmission solutions through a cross functional team of knowledgeable experts and through a sanity check with key industry players, stakeholders and regulators • Document findings and report back to technical group for rework • Review final analysis after completion of the economic assessment to agree items that will be the winners to move through as viable/economic transmission solutions to met future generation and demand scenarios • Complete final review of the compiled document and seek selected feedback from key stakeholders prior to printing and release
Milestones	Completion of high level business and policy assumptions Complete internal review by independent experts Complete external reviews by various external parties Complete reviews rework and provided presentation to technical group Final review by cross-functional internal and external parties